

Editorial

Dear Readers,

Welcome to issue 1 volume 3 of International Journal of Research in Business Studies (IJRBS).

This issue is the compilation of papers presented in the International Conference of Research in Business (ICRB-2018). The papers presented in the conference were comprising varied fields and perspectives revolving around the theme “Modern Age Interventions in Business and Economies: Catches and Keys”.

I appreciate the sincere efforts made by each individual and cooperation in refining the papers to make it fit for publication.

We are trying our level best to make this journal more aligned with your expectations and norms of the domain.

Hope you would love reading. Your feedback and suggestions are always welcome.
